

Title (Times New Roman Bold 12 pt)

(It is important that the title describes exactly the subject that you are writing about)

First Author Name¹, Second Author Name², Other Author Names³ (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt)

¹ First Author affiliation, University/Institute, City, Country (Times New Roman 10 pt)

² Second Author affiliation, University/Institute, City, Country (Times New Roman 10 pt)

³ Other Author affiliation, University/Institute, City, Country (Times New Roman 10 pt)

(The name of the author who presents the abstract should be listed first and underlined)

Introduction and background (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt): The Introduction should describe the purpose of the research. Explain why your work is important and provide an adequate background. Define the problem you solved or the hypothesis you investigated. (Times New Roman 10 pt)

Methods (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt): In this section you should describe the experimental approach used to conduct your study. Don't get into detail about materials unless they were critical to your result. (this part may also include the type of data analysis you used). (Times New Roman 10 pt)

Results (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt): this section contains key-results and data. state what you found, but do not interpret the results or discuss their implications. Data should be quantitative (No tables or figures). (Times New Roman 10 pt)

Discussion and Conclusion (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt): This section describes the main findings from your research in relation to your general purpose that described in introduction. Compare your results with other studies. You may suggest additional researches that can help to improve your results. (Times New Roman 10 pt)

“Introduction, Methods, Results, Discussion and Conclusion totally should be no more than 350 words”

Keywords (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt): Keywords must be chosen carefully. They should represent the content of your manuscript and be specific to your field or sub-field. provide 3 to 6 keywords. (Times New Roman 10 pt)

References (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt): Each abstract must cite two primary articles as literature review. The style for references is based on Vancouver system. (Times New Roman 10 pt)

Corresponding author Email address (Times New Roman Bold 10 pt):

Email@mailserver.com (Times New Roman 10 pt)